Wire Transfer Authorization

You must identify the payee or any financial institution by name and by account number (or by ABA routing number). The Credit Union (and other Institutions) may rely on the member or other identifying number as the proper identification, even if it identifies a different party or institution. If the wire transfer is cleared through the Federal Reserve, the transaction is governed by Regulation J. You authorized the Credit Union to transfer funds as described herein and debit your account in the amount transferred, plus applicable charges. Wire requests are subject to further review which may cause delay or cancellation of the request. The receiving institution may also take additional time to process.
